

Table of Contents

Preface by Barbara J. Nelson	i
Introduction by Daniel J.B. Mitchell	ii
One: At the Tipping Point: The Mortgage Meltdown and Its Implications for California and the Nation	1
Christopher Thornberg
Two: California Political Forecast 2008	29
William Parent
Three: From Jerry-Rigged to Petered Out: Lessons from the Deukmejian Era for Contemporary California State Budgeting	39
Daniel J.B. Mitchell
Four: The State of Black California	77
Steven Raphael and Michael Stoll
Five: The Los Angeles Non-Profit Sector: A Profile	109
Helmut K. Anheier, Eve Garrow, Jocelyn Guihama and Marcus Lam
Six: Benefits and Costs for California from Water Transfers	141
Michael Bazdarich and Christopher Thornberg
Seven: Playing Catch-Up: The Labor Movement in Los Angeles and San Francisco, 1985-2005	169
John H.M. Laslett
Eight: Unions and Direct Democracy in California: A New Pattern Emerging?	197
Daniel J.B. Mitchell
Authors' Biographies	222